

MR PETER LAMBERT

Mr Peter Lambert was appointed Head of Human Resources and Corporate Services in January 2008. His responsibilities include workforce and HR management, governance, assurance, ministerial and corporate communications, coordination of support to ADF operations, external agreements and performance reporting, business process improvement, information management and business systems. He is also responsible for the sustainment of Defence's logistics ERP and the delivery of major upgrades to this system.

His previous appointments have included senior executive responsibilities in the areas of information management, ICT infrastructure provision, ERP support and upgrade, program and project management, special intelligence, information operations and related fields of endeavour. He has led successful transformation and change in all these areas. He has had extensive experience in user requirements development and capability management. He has been the project director of a significant distributed computing and communications project. He has also led servicemen and women on operations and training activities around the world.

Peter has two Masters degrees, in policy studies and information technology. He is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and a Fellow of the Australian Computer Society. He is a keen mountaineer, orienteer and cross-country skier and has climbed on Mount Everest twice. He is married with two young sons.